About the Author

Allan Baillie was born in Scotland in 1943 and moved to Australia when he was seven. He began writing for fun when he was still in school. While attending the University of Melbourne to study journalism, Baillie became a cadet journalist for the Melbourne Sun. Upon graduation, he worked at various newspaper and magazine agencies including the Telegraph, the ABC and the Australian Women's Weekly. He is one of Australia's most successful writers for children. His first children's book, Adrift, was published in 1984. His subsequent works such as Little Brother, The China Coin, Drac and the Gremlin, Saving Abbie, Treasure Hunters and Krakatoa Lighthouse have won him awards and recognition from many countries including Japan, New Zealand, South Africa, Sweden and the United Kingdom.
